

TARTTORIA 13 GOBBI

Where and when:

Florence -

Via del Porcellana, 9R – FIRENZE

Anytime it's open 7 days for lunch and dinner and is a work-horse of traditional Tuscan dining.

In their own words (because they are "spot-on"):

Trattoria dei Tredici Gobbi is attended and very appreciated by both florentines and Italian and foreign tourists the restaurant lives in comfortable environments with a familiar atmosphere and serves cuisine that rigorously interprets the old recipes of the most genuine Tuscan tradition.

House specialty, the rigatonis served in ceramic tureen and the beef cut for 2 people served on the stump.

It's located around the corner from the best hotel in town - The Excelsior - and if you've driven to Florence (bravo! for that alone) it's a couple of blocks from the best located car park - the Garage Europa. If you've followed advice and taken the train it's between the station and the Arno.
